

INVITATION ● SPT Social Art / Writing Retreat

Norre Snede • Denmark 30th May – 1st June 2022

Having solo time for writing is fundamental for advancing a reflective practice in research.

In the past, we noticed that some of our best research a-ha-s and insights were coming right after our major convenings, events and prototyping journeys. This retreat will offer the space for inner quietness and reflection on key learnings, with a daily short session to spark core reflections that may keep us on the path of writing.

FORMAT

Open space processes including;

- meditation and movement morning practice
- time & space for individual writing/visual art
- informal time for sharing
- all meals served as buffet
